

THE YEARS OF 1863 AND 1864.

A review of the local history of the years of 1863 and 1864. being fifty eight and fifty seven years ago, will be found interesting. A survey of the business and professional men of Delphi, for these years, reveals change in a manner almost dramatic, and the passing away of the men active in life's pursuits, almost challenge the statement.

We note the most prominent business and professional men, and public officials of that period.
