

The Madisonian

T. E. CASTLE, Editor and Owner

VIRGINIA CITY, - - MONTANA

March 20, 1922

Mr. John C. Odell,
Delphi, Indiana.

Dear Sir--

In reply to your note of March 14 I wish to assure you that it will afford me great pleasure to publish your story of reminiscences of the Madison valley in the '60's in the columns of The Madisonian.

A few years ago a Mr. Bobbitt of Lincoln, Neb., submitted five or six stories descriptive of his trip with an ox-train across the plains to Virginia City. The readers of the Madisonian appreciated his articles.

After your copy is in my hands I will announce through the Madisonian that a story by you is to be printed the next week. Will send you a copy of the paper bearing the announcement.

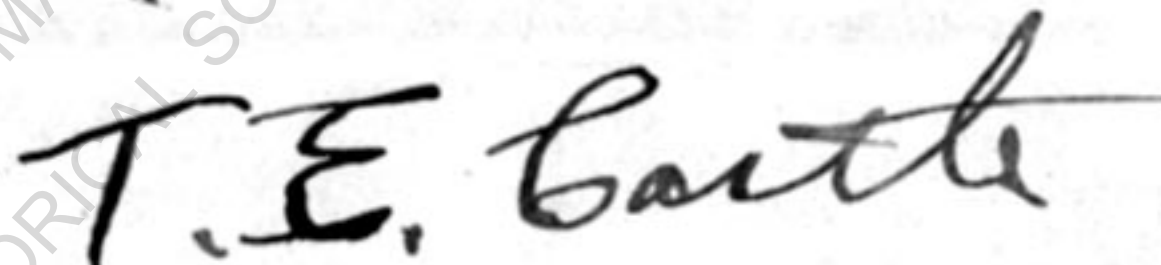

Of the issue containing your story, or stories, I will be pleased to supply you with as many copies as you desire.

I am a native of Brookville, Ind., and spent the first 21 years of my life in that good old state.

Thanking you for offering me the privilege of printing your story, I am,

Very truly yours,

T. E. Castle

Owner The Madisonian.
